Summer Camp 2011

DAILY CAMPER SUPPLIES

- Sunscreen – please apply before coming to camp each day, and keep some in your cubby/locker as well (spray sunscreen is easiest!)
- Swimsuit – please wear or bring. Girls must wear a ONE PIECE BATHING SUIT regardless of age.
- A Towel – on pool days
- Sneakers and socks – this is very important due to the athletic activities we do each day.
- Flip-flops – to be kept in your cubby/locker for pool days, water days, etc.
- Lunch – bring your lunch each day.
- A Good Attitude – please come ready to learn, worship and play nicely.
- PRE-K ONLY - Bedding – sheet, pillow & blanket.
Change of Clothes – to remain at camp in case of spills or accidents.
Swimming Shoes - the ones that can be worn in the pool that protect “little feet.”

MISCELLANEOUS SUPPLIES

In an effort to minimize camp fees, families are encouraged to donate several items listed below to help keep our classrooms stocked throughout the summer. Supplies can be dropped off to the Summer Camp office at the start of the summer.

- | | |
|----------------|-------------------------------|
| - Paper towels | - Napkins |
| - Paper plates | - Antibacterial wipes |
| - Paper cups | - Bag of fun-sized candy bars |

Highlights include:

Campers will create tropical crafts, visit the beach at Assateague Island, have a fun-filled water day and eat lunch Luau Style!

Week 2: June 27 – July 1; Sports Week

Highlights include:

Activities will focus on a different sport each day. The campers will also enjoy a Shorebirds baseball game and a mini field day.

Week 3: July 5 – 8 (closed Monday, July 4); Time Travelers Week

Highlights include:

Campers will travel through time to experience life in Biblical times, ancient Egypt, attend a 50's sock hop and end the week in the old west with a visit to Frontier Town Water Park!

Week 4: July 11 – 15; Pirate Week

Highlights include:

Campers will explore the high seas by dressing up as pirates, going on a treasure hunt, and visiting Jolly Rogers Water Park.

Week 5: July 18 – 22; Medieval Week

Highlights include:

Campers will be treated like royalty with medieval games, a dress-up day, and other castle fun. Our princes and princesses will be treated to a feast fit for royalty, and will end the week with a trip to the horse farm for Pre-K through 2nd Grade and medieval themed putt-putt golf for 3rd-6th Grade!

Week 6: July 25 – 29; Game Show Mania Week

Highlights include:

Campers will participate in games such as Minute to Win It, Lets Make a Deal and other fun favorites. Campers can also participate in SCS Camp's Got Talent with our annual talent show. Our week will end with a trip to the Delaware State Fair.

Week 7: August 1 – 5; Under the Sea Week

Highlights include:

Campers will create cool sea creatures and explore life under the sea. PreK-2nd Grade will have an under the sea putt-putt golf adventure and a special lunch in Ocean City while 3rd-6th Grade will enjoy a trip to the Aquarium in Baltimore to experience the sea life that God has created.

Week 8: August 8 – 12; Wacky and Wonderful Week

Highlights include:

We will bring our camp experience to a close by celebrating all the fun that we have had this summer. We will have a fiesta celebration with piñatas, pajama day, crazy hat day, and other wild excitement! PreK-2nd Grade will end the week with a trip to Co-Co's Funhouse; 3rd-6th Grade will visit the Crown Sports Center for a laser tag challenge!
